Suggested Reading:

Sophie's World by Jostein Gaarder

When 14-year-old Sophie encounters a mysterious mentor, who introduces her to philosophy, mysteries deepen in her own life. Why does she keep getting postcards addressed to another girl? Who is the other girl? And who, for that matter, is Sophie herself? To solve the riddle, she uses her new knowledge of philosophy, but the truth is far stranger than she could have imagined.

The Pig That Wants to Be Eaten by Julian Baggini

Is it right to eat a pig that wants to be eaten? Are you really reading this book cover, or are you in a simulation? If God is all-powerful, could he create a square circle? Here are 100 of the most intriguing thought experiments from the history of philosophy and ideas - questions to leave you inspired, informed and scratching your head, dumbfounded.

Suggested Activities:

Research Plato's cave? What do you think it means? Try drawing the cave.

Write a short story, poem or song, perhaps on the current situation, but with an ethical twist!
